My Best Friend

I have many friends; but there is only one that is the best.
He is the most loveable and caring.
I always walk around holding his hands.
I always want to feel the warmth of his hugs.
I always want him to be my best friend forever.
My best friend is none other than My DAD

Friendship

Friends care,
Friends share,
We need friends
Everywhere.

Make new friends,
But keep the old,
One is silver
And the other gold

A Circle is round
That has no end,
That's how long,
I want to be your friend!

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
I have a friend
And that friend is you!!!

My little sister

My little sister, My little sister

You are the best sister.

Even though you are little and naughty,

You are the best sister.

My little sister, My little sister

Grow up faster and we will play together.

My little sister, My little sister

Christmas and vacations will be fun hereafter.

My little sister, My little sister

I am so blessed to have you.

My little sister, My little sister

Let's support each other and grow old together.

The Day I Met Leo!

It was my birthday, and I was very excited.

My cousins, friends, and relatives, all were invited.

Since the party was late,

I decided I would go down to play.

As I hid behind a pillar to play hide and seek.

I could hear a faint "Meow! Meow!" on repeat.

I looked near an old car and saw a tiny paw.

It was a teeny tiny cat.

It looked so terrified and tried to run from my sight.

I felt bad and held him in my arms,

And stroked his furry head which kept him calm.

I took him home, bathed and fed him,

He became my best companion and friend and I named him
Leo...

A Dark Stormy Night

A dark stormy night,
It was dark as could be.
It was so dark,
I could not see.

The clouds covered the sky,
With strangers stirring.
And the sound of the wind,
Was like it was whirring.

The lights went out,
It was dark as a hut.
Then I noticed,
It was a power cut.

I took out some candles,
I brought in a torch.
Then I took out some food,
Bread and butterscotch.

When I woke up,
It was dawn.
Then I looked out,
And saw the sky and the lawn.

I looked at the trees,
I looked at the lawn.
I was relieved,
Cause the rain was gone!

Going on a Train

As I stand by the railway station, Waiting for my train.

Oh, what fun will it be,

More fun than a plane.

There's noise all around me, Hawkers and vendors.

And standing in a corner, There's a money lender.

After some time, I hear a whistle.

Here it comes,

As fast as a missile!

I board the train,

They check my ticket.

Then I sit in my seat,

And eat a biscuit!

MY BEST FRIEND

Everyone should have a best friend in their life. My best friend's name is Parnika. She is beautiful and a very loving friend. She is a special person in my life, we share almost everything. We play together, we like to share our thoughts with each other. She helps others and I like her kind nature. When I go to her house we do coloring, drawing, play some games and we both enjoy. She is a well-mannered person. We never hide any secrets from each other. She always does good things. Sometimes she helps me in my studies. I am very lucky to have a friend like her.

The Place I wish to Visit and Why

London is the city of my dreams. It is one of the oldest cities in the world. The nursery rhyme 'London Bridge' always fascinated me. London has many buildings that are hundreds of years old. I would like to visit all those places especially The Buckingham palace. I want to take a ride on the London Eye and see the entire city! Beside Buckingham Palace, Hyde Park, The Tower Bridge, The British Museum are also interesting places to visit. My friend who has visited London has told me that we get a variety of food from all over the world over there. London is also good for shopping.

Best friend

Once upon a time, there lived two rabbits in the forest, named Johny and Jockey along with many other animals. All of them were friends and played together. An elephant, named Ramu also lived in that forest. But he was not allowed to play or make friends with other animals because he was fat and big. He was very sad and lonely as they all avoided him.

One day, while playing, Johny and Jockey fell into a hole. Nobody could help them out of the hole and some of their friends even deserted them. But Ramu heard their cry and ran to them. He held out his trunk and lifted them out of the hole. Johny and Jockey thanked Ramu and they all became good friends.

Moral: - One who helps us in difficult situations is our true friend.

THE GIRL AND THE DOG

Once upon a time there lived a girl. Her name was Nina. One day she went for a walk. She heard a noise "Oh! What is it?" she thought. She saw that it was a very bushy place. She walked to the bushes.

She saw a very cute dog. She took it home. She saw that it had a collar. She told her mother. Her mother said, "How about we check for a number in the collar." They found a number and it was her school friend Lilly's dog. She went to Lilly's house.

There she saw Lilly crying. She said, "I have a surprise for you, my dear Lilly". "What is it?" asked Lilly. She said, "I found your dog in the park and here it is." Lilly was so happy to see her dog. She jumped with joy. She hugged and thanked Nina. They both played together with the dog.

The Cartoon Character I wish to meet

Princess Elsa, one of the Disney princesses is the character whom I wish to meet. Elsa is from Arendelle, a beautiful place with lots of mountains, waterfalls and cliffs. I have been totally amazed by her character in the animation movie "Frozen and Frozen 2". Princess Elsa has blue eyes with long blonde hair. Elsa was born with magical powers to create and use ice and snow. She is a strong, powerful and an extraordinary woman but lives in fear as her magical powers had nearly killed her sister, Anna once. She isolated herself to protect her family and the kingdom. I love Elsa because she teaches the importance of family, siblings, kindness, and care for others. I hope to meet her soon.

My Best Friend

My best friend's name is Zara. She comes in the same school bus as mine. We meet everyday in our school bus. She is a very sweet girl. She is younger than me. She loves my drawings. I make cards for her. I sometimes bring cake to share with her. We usually sit together on the way back home from school. We play games in the bus together. We also try to invent new games to play while we are in the bus. I have fun playing and talking with her. I hope she comes to my house on holidays and we can play with my toys at home.

My Best Friend - Magiran

I have many friends but my best friend is Magiran. He lives next to our flat. He belongs to Tamil Nadu. We are friends since 2 years. We play together with toys, carom board and tent house. We do our home work together and help each other in studies. His favorite subject is Math. He likes to eat ice cream. I enjoy South Indian dishes at his home and he loves to eat Rajasthani food at my home. We enjoy watching movies together. Sometimes we get angry with each other during play, but we patch-up very quickly. He always takes my side wherever we play with other friends. Magiran and I go to school together in the same bus. He is truly my best friend.

The Snake Prince

Once upon a time, there lived a princess named Elana. One day, she found a snake. She felt sorry for the snake. She took the snake to her palace. Her father was not happy with her, and he said "Elana, you shouldn't bring a snake to the palace". But Elana put the snake in her room so that her father wouldn't come to know about the snake. One day when she was playing with the snake, her father took the snake and threw it into the forest. She went to the forest to find the snake. But when Elana reached the forest, she couldn't find the snake. Instead she found a young man. The man said, "If you marry me, I will tell you where the snake is." So, she married the man. Then he told her where the snake was. He said, "I am the snake, I am the prince of the neighboring country. When I was going to hunt, suddenly a witch came and turned me into a snake. Thereafter, Elana lived happily with her family.

Little Bunny

Once upon a time, I was walking in the field with my friends. Suddenly, I noticed a ball of fur lying in the bushes. I picked up a stick and pecked it. Suddenly it started moving.

It was an injured rabbit. My friends soon gathered to see the cute gray rabbit. It was a very beautiful rabbit with green eyes and long ears. We then decided to take it to a vet. We began searching for an empty box that could hold it without hurting its wounds. Finally, we found a vet. I handed Bunny over to the nurse and waited for 40 minutes. I still remember my happiness, when the vet told me that Bunny would be alright. I took Bunny home and took good care of it.

He became my best friend and my pet animal. We love each other so much!!!

THE PLACE I WISH TO VISIT AND WHY

The place I wish to visit is Dubai because I want to see Burj Khalifa. I want to go inside the giant malls, and I would like to go to tall hotels. I want to enjoy the boat rides. I want to see the fountain shows and do ice skating inside the malls which will be great fun. Shopping for souvenirs is another interesting thing I want to do in Dubai. One of my friends suggested to see the famous Penguin show so I would love to watch it. I want to take photo shoots with my sweet family in front of Burj Khalifa and keep it as a memory forever. Lastly, I wish to make this trip in Emirates Airlines, in Business Class, which is my life's dream.

The Big Hunter

Once upon a time, there was a man. People named him the big hunter because he had a huge body. The hunter lived in a cave and he used to hunt animals. One day, he was very hungry and wanted something to eat. He went for a walk to look for food. He kept walking and walking. After a long distance, he felt something strange under his foot. The big hunter stopped and started to dig. After digging for some time, he was shocked. "Shiny gold" said the big hunter. He was extremely happy after discovering the treasure. In the end, the big hunter took the gold and became the richest man in the whole village.

The Place I Wish to Visit and Why

There are so many countries in the world that I always wished to visit. But I really want to go to the place which is shown in a painting hung in my house. It is so beautiful. It is filled with greenery and has a river flowing through it. The painting has many large pine trees. It has snowcapped ranges of mountains. The painting depicts a cool morning. When I look at it, I feel calm. I like to imagine that this place is in Switzerland. One day I wish to visit and see the scenery with my own eyes and enjoy the natural beauty.

My Dream Job

Everyone has a dream about what they want to become when they grow up. Ever since I turned eight I want to become a meteorologist. They are the people who study and give the right information about the weather. I love looking at the sky and writing about the weather. I check whether it is sunny or cloudy. During my vacation to India, I watch the black clouds from the terrace. Most of the times it rains, but sometimes it does not. I want to know how to forecast the weather for the next day. I learnt from my science book about meteorologists and then I got curious about this job. I have watched many videos of floods in TV. People were suffering a lot and losing their homes, even their lives. I realized that if we knew the climate earlier, we can evacuate the people and save many lives. So I wish to become a great meteorologist. I am preparing myself for the same from now. I will read science well. I will read books about the weather and I will observe the sky every day.

A Trip to the Moon

One of my friends said, "Guess what, we are going to the moon today". I was excited as we all were looking forward to reaching the moon. The trip was tiresome as it took a long time to get to the moon. Once we reached the moon everyone was tired, and no one was interested in exploring the moon as we had planned. I was excited because I wanted to document everything on the moon and bring them back with me. I tried using my pen, but it would not write so I had to use a pencil. The view of the moon was beautiful, from the stars to the planets and other galaxies that lay in the darkness of space. I captured all the beautiful sights on a high-tech camera. The moon had some steep cliffs with big craters, making it look dangerous; it also had some rocks just like the earth's rocks. The most attractive feature during our trip was the expansive oceans, the beautiful clouds, and the visible spaces below the moon.

After the long trip, we were all back and got home safely. Going to the moon in my dreams is one of the most memorable trips I have ever experienced.

The most memorable day of my life

After the pandemic, I was elated on hearing that we would be travelling to India soon. I was waiting eagerly to meet my cousin Schauna and everyone at home. Reaching Mangalore was finally like a dream come true. I hugged and kissed everyone at home. We exchanged gifts too. I received a beautiful bracelet from my grandfather which had a dolphin. The next day of our arrival was one of the most memorable days of my life. It was my father's birthday and we had planned a surprise for him. On this day we made him take us out for ice cream, while my uncle and aunt decorated the house. By the time we returned home, my mother had also brought a surprise cake for him. It was my favourite strawberry and chocolate flavoured cake. We ate lovely biryani made by my grandfather, sang and danced the whole evening. We even enjoyed playing cricket outdoors. It was a day we all enjoyed being together.

Reena's Creativity

In a small town, a 9-year-old girl named Reena lived with her parents in a village. Reena was very creative and always wanted to help other people. One day, she went to the park nearby, for a walk. On her way, she saw a group of beggars on the path. She felt bad for them and decided to help them, but she had no money. So, she went home and thought, "The beggars are suffering so much. If I give money and food to them, they will use everything and beg again. So, I will teach them how to make kites. The children like flying kites. So the beggars can make kites, and sell them in the market. This way they can earn money". Thinking about this Reena went to sleep.

Next day, in the afternoon she collected some of her art materials and went to the park. There, she saw the beggars. They asked her, "Please give us some money." Reena said, "I don't have money, but I can teach you how to make kites. By selling them in the market you can earn money." The beggars agreed and learnt how to make kites with paper. Then Reena took them to a store nearby and told them to sell their kites. The beggars were very happy and thanked her. This way, Reena helped the beggars in a smart way.

Moral:- Always help and inspire people to do work, instead of begging.

HOW I SPENT MY SUMMER HOLIDAYS

In the summer holidays, after nearly 3 years, I went to Kerala, my home state. We had taken a midnight flight and I was very lucky to get some sleep. Once we reached, I was very excited and insisted on meeting my grandparents first. It was monsoon season in Kerala. Everywhere you looked it was green in colour, full of plants and trees. It was very cool; you don't even need an AC or even a fan. But, you always have to carry an umbrella with you.

I met many of my cousins, uncles and aunts, but the most special ones were my great grandparents. I had the opportunity of attending the 73rd wedding anniversary of my great grandparents. We celebrated all our birthdays together with my grandparents. We went to the capital city of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram. In Kochi I saw the Chinese fishing nets and how they catch fish. We also went to the Sacred Heart College, Thevara. I had the great opportunity to see the Zoology and Botany museums, where I saw a double coconut a very rare phenomena and a huge skeleton of a Whale and other animals.

I joined a library in our apartment complex and read lots of books, by various authors like J.K. Rowling, Jeff Kinney, Enid Blyton etc. Overall I enjoyed my summer holidays thoroughly.

America

Yes, it is my dream place. This is the place I want to visit not just for its beauty but for the person who stays there and for whom I am crazy about - Mr Jimmy Donaldson, the famous YouTuber 'Mr Beast'. He is an American YouTuber, entrepreneur and philanthropist. I want to meet him in person and let him know that I am one of his biggest fans. He is a marvellous videogame player and a fabulous YouTube blogger. He inspires me by his journey as he started posting videos at just the age of 13 and by doing so he turned himself into an entrepreneur.

It teaches me if you love to do something and if you have the art of making a penny from it so why not. Believe in yourself and do it. He has millions of followers of his YouTube channel Mr Beast, making billions of money and spreading so much of love and fun to the gaming world.

Wow, Mr Beast your life is a boon,

Oh God! I want to meet him soon.

The Most Memorable Day of My Life

The most memorable day of my life was when I met my cousins this year during the summer vacations. We had arranged a small get-together to meet everyone. I was meeting them after a very long time. I had been wanting to meet all my cousins and relatives for a while now. Early morning, we went for a walk together and had breakfast. Then we went to the venue where the get-together was held. There was a swimming pool and a playground. We partied a lot that day. After the get-together was over, my cousins and I went to watch a movie. Then we went to this famous beach where we watched the sunset. The Sun was really pretty that day. We then went to Lulu Mall for some shopping. My cousins and I also went to the play area in the mall. We went on a roller coaster, played bowling and tried out the arcade machines. The rides were so much fun. After playing so much we were hungry, so we went to the food court and had loads of yummy food. Later we went to one of my cousin's house where we had a sleepover. We watched another movie and then went to sleep. It was the most fun I've ever had. I'm really grateful that I got to cherish these moments.

The Person I Wish to Meet and Why

The person I wish to meet in my life is the Indian cricket player M S Dhoni. He is famous all over India for his playing skills. He was the Captain of the Indian National Cricket team. My favourite game is cricket. That's how I started to know about Dhoni. For me, he is the best batsman. I watch all his matches in IPL, where he plays for my home state, Tamil Nadu (Chennai Super Kings). My ambition is to become a cricket player. He has inspired me a lot to make this my ambition. This is one of the main reasons why I want to meet him. Once I get a chance to meet him, the first question I'll ask him is 'How do I prepare to fulfil my dream like him? I'm also eager to know what inspired him to become a cricket player since he is the reason for my inspiration. I also want to know what makes him stay calm even during critical situations and take decisions wisely. Finally, like every other fan, I would also like to take a picture with him and get an autograph from him by saying that I'm his biggest fan and will always be.

Peter and Brownny (A Short Story)

Once upon a time there was a boy named Peter. He lived with his father, mother and elder sister. One day Peter got a cute little puppy as a birthday gift from his parents. Peter named him Brownny, soon they became good friends. Brownny was a clever and lovable pet dog. He was a good companion. Peter taught him many tricks. Every day they played together.

One day when they were playing in the ground, they found a tree full of sweet mangoes. They decided to pluck some mangoes from the tree. While Peter climbed the tree, he suddenly fell down. Peter's leg was injured and he could not walk. Once Brownny found his master was injured, he felt very sad and ran to Peter's house. He barked and caught Peter's father's attention by pulling his coat. Father followed him and reached the ground. He found his son severely injured. He took him to the hospital.

Every day Brownny would eagerly wait for his master at the gate. As days passed Peter was discharged and reached home. When Brownny saw his master, he ran to him and showed his love by licking his feet. Peter recognized his love and hugged him. They lived happily ever after.

The Most Memorable Day of Life

Life is full of memories! Some of the events that happen in our life remain in our memory for a long time. The most memorable day in my life was my trip to Georgia. As a kid, I was always fascinated to visit the place where it snows.

After two long years of lockdown, I visited Georgia shortly after the war with Russia. I loved Georgia for the most exciting place known as Gudauri. It is a paradise on earth. Its beauty is mesmerizing. It has snowcapped mountains and pine trees all around. I enjoyed in the snow. I went paragliding on top of the mountains. I travelled on the top by cable car. It was freezing cold. We took a quick breakfast. I went paragliding with my guide Thomas. He helped me build my confidence. We enjoyed the ride. While returning I came down the hilltop by a big snow scooter. I was thrilled to drive the snow scooter on my own with my mother sitting behind me. I have got very good memories about that place which will remain fresh in my mind forever.

The Memorable Day of my life

One day we went out for a trip. We travelled on a tourist bus and headed to Konni Elephant Reserve, which is in Pathanamthitta District, Kerala. It was a surprise for us as we didn't know about it before. We visited an Elephant Museum, where they explained different body parts of elephants and even had some skeleton representations of ancient elephants. It was a great learning experience for me. We also saw sculptures of elephants from pre-historic ages and took their photographs.

Next, we went to Konni Eco-Tourism Centre, which had boating services. It was an amazing experience. The boat was round in shape and called 'Kottavanchi'. While we were enjoying the boat ride, suddenly it started raining. The beauty of the rain, the fun-filled boat ride and the presence of my friends and family, made that day the most memorable day of my life.

My Trip to India after Corona Pandemic

I travelled to India in the early month of June after a long gap of two and half years of the Corona pandemic. I was so excited to see my grandparents, uncles, and cousins. Once the flight landed, I could not even wait to collect the luggage, I ran towards my grandparents. I had lots of stories to tell them. I also visited many temples and holy places. I saw a few of my old friends. There were many important occasions I missed during the pandemic. I visited many relatives' places along with my grandparents. I was able to travel by train after a long time. The journey was a very memorable one. I went to my favorite hotels and had many tasty dishes. I played a lot with my cousins. I could also watch some good Indian movies. I was so happy to see my grandparents, friends, and relatives. When I had to return to Kuwait, I felt that some part of me remained there forever.

An Unforgettable Day

John is an English boy. He is 9 years old. He is an excellent student at school.

His favourite sport is football and all his teachers and his classmates love him. His favourite team is Liverpool. He is a big fan of Mohamed Salah, the walls of his bedroom are covered with Salah's posters. In addition, he always wears Salah's shirt and wishes to meet him one day. All his friends and teachers know about this wish. Last week, John's friends were preparing a special surprise for him on his birthday. They sent a message to his best footballer begging him to come to their school to please John on his birthday. Fortunately, Salah accepted their invitation. On that day, the class teacher asked the students to talk about their favourite sports champion. When John started talking about Mo-Salah, to his astonishment, John saw MO - Salah in front of him. He couldn't believe himself when Salah was shaking his hand and saying "Happy Birthday". John was so excited because his dream came true." It is the most memorable day in my life", said John. Finally, John thanked Salah, his teachers and his friends.

A Memorable Day In My Life

We were on vacation in Kerala. We went to a hill station called Munnar. We drove until we reached Amber Dale hotel. It was a very long drive. The road towards the hotel was zig-zag and steep. On the way we saw waterfalls and monkeys. The monkeys were eating food given by travelers. I was happy to watch them eating like human beings. We reached the hotel. When I looked out of the hotel balcony, I saw tall mountains, trees, tea plantations and houses. It was covered by mist. It was a beautiful sight. We went to a restaurant to eat lunch. They served us a very special coloured water which looked like hot chocolate. We rode bicycles in the mist and clicked many pictures. We went for a campfire in the night. When we went back to the restaurant to have dinner, I got startled by the sound of balloons popping. There we saw a specially decorated honeymoon table. On the way back home, we stopped by a chocolate factory and bought a lot of tasty chocolates along with our little cousin sister. Driving down the hill was scary. It was raining. But we enjoyed it.

The Place I wish to Visit and Why

The place I wish to visit is Cairo where I can go visit the pyramids of GIZA, and take a tour in the Nile in a cruise. It is located in my home town Egypt but I am from Alexandria. I have never been to the pyramids before. I have only seen pictures of it which made me feel that I want to visit. I have read that The Great Pyramid is one of the Seven Wonders of the World. Ancient Egypt is one of the most interesting and oldest civilizations of the world. Each pyramid consists of temples, statues, and tombs. There is also the sphinx statue that I would like to see. I also found out that I can ride a horse or a camel over there. I wish to go and take so many photos with my family inside the pyramids. I am sure that I will enjoy my day and have so much fun and for sure I will get some souvenirs for my friends and teachers.
