

FAIPS STUDENTS EARN LAURELS IN THE KITCO QUIZ COMPETITION- 2024

In an exhilarating display of knowledge and quick thinking, FAIPS DPS put up a stiff fight to secure the second place at the prestigious 28th KITCO Inter-School Quiz Competition organised by the Bengali Cultural Society, Kuwait on Friday, 20 September 2024 at the Innova International School, Mahboula.

The event, which attracted a fierce roster of 20 participating schools, was hosted by Mr. Venky Srinivasan, CEO of Nexus Consulting.

The competition was intense, with FAIPS DPS Team B, comprising Agastya Sabarad and Gerson Franklin qualified for the Final round scoring an impressive 23 points in the Preliminary Round while Team A of FAIPS DPS, Muhammed Saleeth and Swajit Biswas were close behind with 22 points, showcasing the depth of talent within the institution. However, in accordance with the competition rules, only one team from each school was allowed to participate, adding to the challenge and excitement of the event.

As the quiz progressed, the excitement reached its pinnacle during the final round, culminating in a nail-biting finish. FAIPS team in a neck-to-neck competition with the winning team secured a whopping 105 points and clinched a close second spot in a thrilling finale. FAIPS quizzier, Agastya Sabarad of Class VIII was awarded the Best Quizzier by the Quizmaster for his remarkable performance, as he attempted the challenging questions with complete panache and ease.

The event not only highlighted the intellectual prowess of the participating students but also fostered camaraderie among the schools, making it an unforgettable experience for all the contestants.

On behalf of the management the principal, Mr. Ravi Ayanoli congratulated the team and their mentors for the success.
