

FAIPS UKG Graduation Ceremony 2025-26

Fahaheel, Kuwait – Fahaheel Al-Watanieh Indian Private School (FAIPS) Kindergarten proudly hosted its UKG Graduation Ceremony on February 11th and 12th, 2026. Centered on the theme “We Are Unstoppable: Watch Us Rise and Shine,” the event celebrated the resilience and academic milestones of the young graduates. The ceremony opened with a recital of the Holy Quran and the Kuwait National Anthem, followed by an inspiring welcome address from Principal Mr. Ravi Ayanoli. He highlighted the school’s philosophy of transforming the “impossible” into “I am possible,” emphasizing the vital role of parent-teacher collaboration in holistic child development.

The two-day event was graced by several prominent figures and international dignitaries. On February 11th, the school welcomed Chief Guest Dr. Tahseen Khan, Senior Neonatologist and President of the Indian Women’s Association. The following day featured Chief Guests H.E. Archbishop Eugene Martin, Apostolic Nuncio, and H.E. Ambassador Hans-Christian Freiherr Von Reibnitz, the German Ambassador to Kuwait. Other guests of honour included Mr. Reaven D’Souza, Founding Managing Editor of the Times Kuwait, Dr. Shaima Al Ansari, Educational Activity Coordinator, Ministry of Education, and Dr. Maha Dulaimi, Director of student affairs at the Kuwait College of Law, all of whom witnessed the remarkable growth of the graduating class.

The students showcased their creativity through a vibrant cultural extravaganza that featured global dance tributes and theatrical performances. The program included Arabian, Bollywood Fusion, and Punjabi Folk dances, alongside an international troupe representing the rhythms of Italy and Greece. A highlight of the showcase was the "KG Theatre" production of the 19th-century fairytale “The Princess Who Never Smiled,” which delivered a powerful message about finding happiness from within.

The celebration reached its peak with the Graduation March, where students dressed in traditional caps and gowns received their scrolls from the Chief Guests. This followed a nostalgic slideshow documenting the students’ journey through UKG. The Chief Guest, H.E. Archbishop Eugene Martin, commended the children’s confidence, noting FAIPS’s unwavering commitment to nurturing compassionate and curious learners. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks from Headmistress Mrs. Bharti Tiwari, marking the successful transition of the graduates toward a future of endless possibilities.

In conclusion, the UKG Graduation Ceremony 2025-2026 was a momentous and memorable occasion, leaving behind treasured memories and heartfelt pride, as our young graduates embarked upon their first confident steps toward a future filled with promise, purpose and endless possibilities.
