

Thanima Pearl of the School Award

Ruth Rachel Zachariah, a student of Grade 12 and the Head Girl at Fahaheel Al-Watanieh Indian Private School (FAIPS-DPS) was awarded the prestigious Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam “Pearl of the School - 2019” award at a function organized by Thanima, an elite organization in Kuwait, as a part of their initiative to recognize and honour outstanding students from Indian Schools in Kuwait.

The glittering function held on Friday, 8th November, 2019 at the Indian Central School was graced by H.E Mr. Jeeva Sagar , the Ambassador of India to Kuwait, Col. Ebrahim Al Duaiwere, Head of Farwaniyah Police Department, and a host of other dignitaries who presented the awards to the students.

Ruth was nominated by FAIPS for her consistent all round performance in curricular as well as co-curricular activities. The award will be an added feather in her list of numerous achievements and elevate her position as a role-model for the students of her school. It was indeed a proud moment for Ruth, her parents and the school.
